The temperature outdoors topped 70 degrees but a sufficient coating of ice had built up at the rooftop, open-air skating center.

Assail no-growth 'air quality' plan

Proposed designations of major Illinois metropolitan areas as no-growth "air quality maintenance areas" are confusing, crudely conceived, and have many far-reaching economic and social implications, a spokesman for the 19,000-member Illinois State Chamber of Commerce contends.

Raymond J. Bodnar, environmental affairs manager for the statewide business organization, will testify at Illinois Pollution Control Board hearings in Peoria tomorrow. The board is studying an Illinois Environmental Protection Agency proposal to designate the Chicago, East St. Louis (including the Quad-Cities) and Peoria standard metropolitan statistical areas as "air quality maintenance areas" to meet federal air quality standards.

EPA contends present air quality standards in the metropolitan areas may have the potential for exceeding national ambient air quality standards over the next decade.

Bodnar asserts that "both federal and state EPA officials have admitted the Illinois AQMA projections were based on 'crude and rough' methodology. In our view, the proposals have been established on a questionable technical basis."

"There must be a demonstrated need for designation of an air quality maintenance area, since the economic and social implications of future air quality plans will have far-reaching effects."

"The economic impact of the air quality maintenance areas and subsequent plans must be carefully assessed. Legislation approved by the General Assembly (S.389) would satisfy that need."

"Both social and economic considerations must be balanced with the clean air requirements."

"EPA should establish an interdisciplinary task force of professionals from both the public and private sectors, since the development of air quality maintenance plans is expected to be a complex process. The State Chamber offers its assistance."

"A cooperative and coordinated effort is needed to insure that existing local agencies participate in the air quality planning process. These include zoning boards, metropolitan planning agencies, highway planning commissions."

"Business interests should be represented. It is desirable to apply air quality control considerations to the existing processes rather than have EPA impose new requirements which may be inconsistent with

College serving 1,275

Although detailed planning could not begin here on a full scale until Aug. 1, effective date for annexation to the Belleville Area College district, the initial fall term is regarded as an overwhelming success.

A total of 349 students from the Quad-Cities are attending classes at the Belleville campus.

Those enrolled there for credit courses include 288 from Granite City Community Unit School District Nine, 43 from Madison School District Twelve and eight from Venice School District Three.

In addition, 926 are attending local extension classes. This figure combined with the 349 going to Belleville amounts to 1,275—a figure larger than that believed possible in view of the delay in assuring that the entire Quad-Cities would become a part of BAC on schedule.

It was not until the final day, in July, that it was certain there would be no anti-annexation petitions filed to seek a referendum.

Progress of the new college program was discussed here at the early-fall meeting of the Area College Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman of the committee is Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr. of Granite City, past Illinois superintendent of public instruction.

Those present also included Paul Walter, Mrs. Emylee Alford, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, Dr. Warren Nieberg of BAC, Venice School Supt. Robert Vickers and Madison School Supt. John Pachetti.

Conferring with the group were the three local coordinators of Belleville Area College—M. A. Wietvenge of

Reduce murder charge

Anthony Johnson, 27, of 4060 Kathy Drive, Pontoon Beach, who had been charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife May 14, pleaded guilty Thursday afternoon to a reduced charge of involuntary manslaughter. He is to be sentenced Thursday, Oct. 31.

Mrs. Virginia Johnson, 21, was shot in the chest as she returned home at 3 a.m. May 14. Johnson and Tommy Lane, co-franchises of the George and Son's Family Restaurant, 3305 Nameeki Road, who both resided in the apartment, were alone before the shooting and Lane had gone to bed, according to statements given to police. Johnson and Lane came to Granite City in March to take over the local restaurant.

Endorse Beatty

The Illinois State Bar Association today voiced favorable recommendations for two judges serving this area who are running for retention in office on a non-partisan, unopposed basis.

They are William L. Beatty of Granite City, a circuit judge of the Third Circuit, and Edward C. Eberspacher, an appellate judge of the Fifth Judicial District.

In the Fifth appellate race between a Democrat and a Republican, Charles E. Jones (D) was recommended by Democratic, Republican and independent voters.

Lehman D. Krause (R), running against Jones, was listed as "not recommended" by all three categories, attorneys who are independents, Democrats and Republicans.

No poll was taken on John M. Karns Jr., Democrat, who is unopposed for another appellate judge post in the Fifth District.

Bowland and GCHS North, including the intersection with Maryville Road. Two more lanes of pavement are to be placed near the location of the old roadway, making Route 203 a four-lane divided highway from Pontoon Road to Interstate 270.

Jail need debated

A proposal to build a new Madison County jail with a $4 million bond sale was becoming an embattled issue today as opponents of the bond sale sought petition signatures to force the bond proposal to a referendum vote and Nov. 5 election, the Madison County Sheriff's Department said overpopulation at the jail and inadequate facilities in a jail built 100 years ago have created serious problems for a long time.

Conrad "Pete" Baetz, information officer for the sheriff's office, said occupancy at the County Jail has been running 145 to 150 per cent over the population that should be there.

"The jail was built for a limit of 40 prisoners, and lately we've had upwards of 55. At times last week we had 70 prisoners in the cells," Baetz said.

Noting that the maximum number of prisoners that should be in the jail is 41, Baetz said Madison County well could face a court order similar to one issued by U. S. District Judge John Regan in St. Louis to close the St. Louis City Jail, if the overpopulation problem is not solved soon.

The Madison County Board at its September meeting authorized issuance of $4 million in bonds to build a new jail. Unless the bond issue plan is forced to a referendum by petition, the bonds would issue automatically with a separate tax levy to pay the bond payment and interest.

Petitions bearing nearly 11,000 signatures—10 per cent of the vote cast in the last general election—must be filed with the county clerk's office not later than Friday to obtain a vote on the proposal.

Opponents of the bond proposal, spearheaded by Mrs. Alberta Fensterman of Meadowbrook, placed petitions in circulation last week, in the Alton, Wood River, Roxana and Granite City areas, while adding the effort is a difficult task. Mrs. Fensterman said she hopes it can be done.

County Board members Robert Ford of Wood River said Saturday he will ask the board

County Board members Robert Ford of Wood River said Saturday he will ask the board in its meeting this month to reconsider the bond ordinance. He said if he cannot get the board to reconsider the jail project, he will introduce a resolution eliminating a new residence for the sheriff from the jail construction project.

"We don't have any idea of what the project will cost, what it will look like, what kind of foundation it will have—nothing," Ford said.

Plans to construct the new jail began after the Department of Corrections threatened earlier this year to close the Madison County jail if extensive improvements were not made, and a former inmate at the jail, Wade R. Edsall of Caseyville, filed a federal court suit for $12,500 against Sheriff John Maers and other county officials.

Edsall charged that his

Schuler joins Bi-State board

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler has been appointed by Gov. Dan Walker as a member of the Bi-State Development Agency board of commissioners and attended his first meeting Friday morning.

Mayor Schuler said he was notified of his appointment by telephone early Friday morning by a governor's aide who asked Schuler if he could attend the board's session at 3:30 a.m. in the Bi-State offices in St. Louis.

The mayor said the phone call gave him barely enough time to reach the meeting which was limited to a discussion of the Bi-

State agency's participation in port activities in the metropolitan area. No definite action was taken.

Schuler said he was told that he would fill the board vacancy created by the resignation of Fred J. Beckman of Collinsville, a term that expires Jan. 1, 1977. Bi-State commissioners are appointed to five-year terms with the board made up of five commissioners from the St. Louis area and five from the Illinois area.

One other term of an Illinois member, Ralph D. Walker, a Belleville attorney, expires Jan. 1, 1977.

Schools close for Columbus Day, Institute

All Quad-City public and parochial schools will close Oct. 14—Columbus Day—while parochial pupils will be given another day off on Friday, Oct. 11, to permit teachers to attend an all-day institute.

Parochial schools which will not conduct classes Friday through Monday include St. Joseph, St. Elizabeth, Sacred Heart and St. Margaret Mary in Granite City, and St. Mary's St. Mark's in Madison and Venice.

All classes in both public and parochial schools will resume regular schedules on Tuesday, Oct. 15.

Two found unconscious

Two Pontoon Beach teenagers, a boy and a girl, were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 11:35 p.m. Saturday after they apparently ingested overdoses of drugs. Both are juveniles.

Pontoon Beach police were called to a Gaslight Walk apartment on a complaint of loud music and found the door ajar. They knocked and entered, turned off the stereo and found the two unconscious in a bedroom.

They awakened the boy but the girl did not respond to attempts to wake her. An ambulance was summoned and the two were taken to the hospital.

The boy was taken to the Madison County Juvenile Detention Home after being released from the hospital last night. The girl was to be released from the hospital today.

GC appeal on sewer grant

An appeal for reconsideration of $313,000 in flood disaster funds that were rejected by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration has been filed by Granite City with Illinois Civil Defense officials through whom claims for such funds are cleared.

The appeal was filed by Mayor Paul Schuler with William Elms of Belleville, regional Civil Defense representative, and with Erie Jones, state Civil Defense director, after an engineer hired by the FDAA to investigate repairs to sanitary sewer breaks in Granite City held that proper engineering methods and proper cost patterns had been followed in making the repairs.

The $313,000 rejected by the FDAA represented part of the cost of sewer break repairs, particularly for dewatering around breaks so that work crews could make excavations to complete repairs to the lines.

Dewatering was a major part of the cost on all of the repairs for which the city sought flood disaster funds.

The Army Corps of Engineers which checked out claims of taxing bodies seeking aid to repair damages caused by the 1973 spring floods, recommended that $313,000 of the cost for dewatering in Granite City not be paid because engineering methods did not comply with those approved by the corps.

As a result, Granite City has received only $326,000 in federal funds thus far, although it has received $326,000 in aid grants approved and still to be received. FDAA funds has been approved.

Price lauds new building

"This new building, constructed with federal revenue sharing funds, symbolizes the partnership of our three levels of government—local, state and federal," U.S. Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) told Chouteau Township officials during dedication ceremonies Saturday afternoon at the new township garage.

More than 50 persons representing local, county, state and federal governments, attended the ceremonies to hear Price, State Sen. Sam

Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) and others speak.

Price, noting that the new garage was financed entirely by federal revenue sharing funds,

Daylight time ends Oct. 27

Daylight time—placed on a year-round basis due to the energy shortage last winter—will end at 2 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 27, under a new law signed during the weekend by President Gerald Ford.

Instead of the previous pattern of six months on standard time, the interval now will be four months.

An eight-month period of daylight saving time is planned, effective in late February.

Motorcycle safety—or how to avoid Evel Knievel syndrome

Neither rain nor snow nor a broken elbow shall prevent the avid motorcycle enthusiast from smoking into gear, even during the winter season.

The question is, how does one enjoy the pleasures of biking to the fullest and yet stay safe with himself and others?

One bike enthusiast was overheard to comment that the machine has a mind of its own and keeps reminding its owner to drive with respect. As long as a biker has this attitude, the possibilities of accident will be reduced to the minimum.

Evel Knievel is walking today not only because medical science has provided numerous pins in his joints to keep him going, but also because he admittedly has a concern for safety at all times. Although, Evel takes chances, he does so with careful deliberation, not with reckless abandon.

The Illinois State Bar Association has some safety tips for cyclists which may not give one the image of a member of "Hell's Angels" but surely will prevent becoming another type of angel so fast.

Unfortunately when you purchase a motorcycle, you may not have had any previous experience on a motorized bike.

Thus, it is imperative that you work with your machine before you begin to travel the open highways or country roadways. Become familiar with the bike, not only as to how it handles, but also how it is built, what the controls do and why, etc.

Talk with a person who is experienced in motorcycle driving. In other words, know your machine and what it can and cannot do.

Don't forget—what goes up must come down and what just might come down is your cycle on you, or you on the road.

A motorcycle driver should always wear safety gear, such as a helmet, heavy boots and a thick jacket. You may have thought that the person you saw wearing such equipment was just trying to look "tough" but actually he was being safety-conscious.

The Illinois State Bar adds that you and your passenger must wear glasses or goggles or be protected in some way by a protective shield, according to state law.

Motorcycle operators are required by law to have the following equipment:

—At least one mounted white headlight which can be seen 500 feet away.

—A light for your license plate which is visible at a distance of 50 feet.

—One red tail light visible at a distance of 500 feet.

—A properly maintained muffler.

—Brakes on both wheels.

—Handbars not more than 15 inches in height above the driver's seat.

—A rearview mirror which reflects a view of 200 feet.

—A horn which can be heard at least 200 feet away.

—A seat capable of holding passengers, if the driver wishes to transport persons; no passengers can be carried except in a sidecar or enclosed cab, unless the machine is equipped for passengers with handgrips on the seat or saddle and has adjustable footrests.

It is stressed that motorcyclists must obey all traffic rules and regulations with which automobile drivers must also comply.

Bikers cannot pass between two other vehicles going in the same direction unless there is an unobstructed traffic lane available.

And they cannot pass on the right unless there is unobstructed pavement at least eight feet wide to the right of the vehicle they are passing.

You cannot drive a motorcycle unless you are at least 16 years old. At age 16 you may purchase an instruction permit which gives you the right to drive during daylight hours only and only in the presence of a licensed motorcycle driver.

If you currently drive another vehicle, you must pass a motorcycle test. Every cycle is required to have a license plate on it at all times.

When several cyclists are traveling together, they must ride in groups of two and never ride abreast in the same lane of traffic.

Positions of the cycles must be staggered so the rider on the left is ahead of the right-hand motorcycle. Sufficient distance should be kept between each of two so that faster vehicles can pass through the formation.

The State Bar Association also advises that a motorcyclist apply both brakes at the same time, watch for slick or loose surfaces, be alert at intersections, not park where there is grease or oil, stay off expressways unless the cycle is equipped for such travel.

Also keep feet on footrests at all times; when crossing or changing lanes, never make a move until all nearby traffic is checked; and cross railroad tracks at a 90-degree angle to avoid skidding or catching the wheels.

Motorcycle driving can be fun and an escape from the normal routine of life, if safety rules and state laws are closely complied with by cycle operators, the ISBA says.

There is only one Evel Knievel and he makes sure he gets well paid to take those calculated risks of his life and limbs.

Seminar speaker cites 'bitterness of millions'

Greater tolerance and appreciation of the points of view of America's working classes of people was urged last week by the keynote speaker of the University Seminar at Edwardsville (USE).

Dr. Robert L. Coles, internationally-known social psychologist at Harvard University, addressed the USE keynote session in the Communications Building Theater at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The theater was nearly filled for the first of nine seminar sessions which will deal with the topic, "Ethnic Identity and Cultural Integrity."

Dr. Coles was critical of the "intellectual community" for its continuing studies of "culturally disadvantaged people." "Whose ethnic identity should we study?" he asked.

"Who is studying those who are doing the studying of others?" Dr. Coles admonished, "Don't feel that we need to always come to conclusions about people, don't feel that we always have to change people. Many of the people who are coming to the seminar are more healthy in mind and spirit and have a better way of life than those who are recommending the changes."

Dr. Coles cited the "bitterness and resentment" of millions of Americans he called "working class." "This is why they listen to a political demagogue like George Wallace," he stated.

Dr. Coles said, from the viewpoint of the "unmercifully taxed," they look with a sense of "betrayal and frustration at the rich and say, 'Our sons go to Vietnam and fight, their sons simply protest; we pay, they get, we have nothing, they have so much.'"

Dr. Coles said he believes "the most universally detected phenomenon among millions of working people is educational television. They consider it a waste of tax money," he said.

The keynote compared cultural identity with psychiatry. "Both are diversions from the real problems," he said. "And the emphasis comes and goes."

The Harvard psychologist, who has lived with sharecroppers, migrants, mountaineers, poor blacks and working class whites in an effort to understand their viewpoints, cited lessons he learned from his experiences.

"I often learned that the so-called 'culturally disadvantaged person' knew what he was about, and I didn't know anything," he said. "I learned that intellectuals often are narrow, and in a way, a privileged class."

The keynote urged the seminar participants to respect "honest individualism" and to read the books of "those who recognize and honestly evaluate the human contradictions which persist about race."

Citing racial problems in his native New England, Dr. Coles called the situation in Boston "a human dilemma" and "more serious than the confrontations of past years in the South."

Formerly an advocate of busing, he said, "I must now disown what I wrote in 1965. I wouldn't send my children five miles on a bus through the violence of Boston."

In answer to questions and comments from the audience, Dr. Coles said he is pessimistic that "intellectuals" and the so-called "working class" can achieve a "political marriage."

He said the "New Deal" of the Roosevelt presidential years "came close to achieving that."

Dr. John S. Rendleman, president of SIUE, who presided at the keynote session, said he believes the seminar topic is "an extremely challenging and relevant question for the University to be addressing itself to, particularly in light of the fact that the constituency we serve is rich in diverse ethnic backgrounds and strong cultural vitality."

"Lately, we have heard much talk about healing the nation's wounds. If we had listened to men like Coles earlier, I am sure these wounds would not be nearly so painful and deep."

President Rendleman said.

The president introduced the faculty representatives and presidential scholars from each of the University's schools, who will make presentations during the seminar series which runs through March 7. All future sessions will be held on Friday evenings in the Lovejoy Library.

Students solve simulated problems

Graduate students in the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Education are being provided opportunities this fall to experience simulated true-life situations in educational administration.

A course in "Applied Administrative Processes" is one of several curriculum changes resulting from a two-year review of the master's degree program in educational administration, according to Raymond L. Lows, department chairman.

"Monroe City Urban School Simulations," prepared by the University Council for Educational Administration (UCEA), give students direct experiences in dealing with "increasingly complex administrative situations," Lows said. UCEA membership consists of major universities in the United States and Canada.

Lows points out that learners in the new course are forced to solve problems rather than simply contemplate them, "complex problems and circumstances are made more manageable, concrete, and relevant to the reality of school administration."

"Experimental behavior, which may be very hazardous in the real job, can be encouraged in the low-risk climate of the simulation exercise," Lows added. "Mistakes that might be disastrous on the job are not so in the simulated environment."

According to UCEA, simulation experiences stimulate high interest and motivation in learning. Another advantage cited is that "simulation permits a degree of introspection not common in many other instructional methods."

The UCEA materials being used in the SIUE course include working papers in such problems as personnel selection and placement, conflict between and among militant groups, planning and placement of school facilities, school system responsiveness to minority group demands, financing of needed changes, student unrest, community conflict and political decision-making, busing, and curriculum changes.

The materials include films, tapes, handbooks, kinescopes, background booklets, data banks, written case vignettes, structured role plays, films, and written full-length cases, inbasket tasks, and other media. The simulated tasks are designated for the roles of elementary principal and senior high principal.

At any point during the simulation, the participants may be interrupted by an audio or filmed incident. The incident must be handled on the spot. At times, the learners may be required to reach decisions while lacking information. Also, they may receive conflicting information.

Enrollment in the SIUE educational administration programs continued to increase in the fall quarter. The department is authorized to recognize two levels of performance—a master of science in education degree, and sixth-year specialist's certificate. In the fall quarter, enrollment has reached 288 students, up 12 percent over a year ago. The upward trend began a year ago, when enrollment climbed 48 per

Urban League active in two-county region

The Urban League of Madison-St. Clair Counties, 500 Madison Avenue, Madison, is one of the 18 member agencies of the Tri-Cities United Way, currently conducting its annual fund campaign.

The Urban League is a race relations agency dedicated to improving the life chances of poor and near-poor persons. The organization works toward its goal by striving for equal economic opportunities and equal justice, and by aiming for equal education, employment, improved housing and better community conditions and services.

The Urban League's objective is to end all facets of discrimination and racism that prevent full participation in the opportunities and responsibilities that are the right of every member of American society.

It is governed by an interracial board of directors which represents a cross-section of the community. The board hires a professional staff to carry out the day-to-day business of achieving opportunities and justice for black and poor white citizens.

Its programs help persons attain better job opportunities, better housing, better health care, a decent place to live and a voice in how they will live their lives. The League works with businesses to help them in meeting their equal opportunity pledge.

The Urban League provides programs to meet human needs and help solve community problems through:

1. Employment and job placement for individuals ready to enter or re-enter the labor market.
2. Labor education apprenticeship project to move cent in the fall and 54 per cent in the winter quarter.

Lows said there is a larger percentage of women in educational administration programs, and he said more women are being sought because school districts in many cases are asking specifically for qualified women in administration.

Lows says "self-assessment" is encouraged among participants in the educational administration programs. "Our mission is to make the training experience as realistic as possible, to help a marginal student come to grips with the fact he may not be able to meet the challenges facing administrators today."

minority and economically disadvantaged workers into skilled crafts and trades.

3. Special tutoring for in-district students who are "pushed out" of the high school system.

4. Professional and technical assistance in program planning and consultant services to business and industry to meet their manpower needs as well as equal opportunity pledges.

5. Publicizing of information on what is happening in the civil rights field.

Create new scouting post

The Uniway (Quad-Cities) district of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council has created a new position within the volunteer organization known as "chairman-elect."

The newly-created position is intended to provide greater continuity of leadership in the district with the chairman-elect replacing the district chairman when his term of office ends.

This would give the chairman-elect a full year, or more, to work with the district organization, becoming better prepared to assume the leadership role of district chairman, the number one volunteer district position.

The organizational change also will include six vice-chairmen, one each for Cub Scouts, Exploring, Finance, Cub relations and scout relations.

The Cubbing vice-chairman will have the overall Cub Scout program responsibility within the district and will work in areas of training, activities and membership. The vice-chairmen for scouting and exploring will have similar responsibilities except for their respective program areas.

The vice-chairman for finance will have an overall responsibility for fund raising in the district and represent the district in areas of council finance. Along with council chairman he will work in special areas of sustaining membership, family enrollment and special project areas.

The vice-chairman for Cub relations and Scout relations will assist local unit leaders in district programs, and attend leaders roundtables.

A letter explaining the new organization was sent to the volunteer leaders by Dr. Thomas Layloff, current district chairman.

Scout leaders are being asked to submit names of individuals who could serve either as committee chairman or in one of the new positions to Job Blasingame, chairman of the nominating committee, 1338A Niedringhaus Ave., by Oct. 18.

The election of the chairman, chairman-elect, and vice-chairmen will take place on Thursday, Nov. 7, in the First United Presbyterian Church, 22nd Street and Delmar Avenue.

Chamber dinner reservations due

Persons who plan to attend Thursday night's annual Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting at Granite City High School North are urged to make their reservations as soon as possible by calling the Chamber office at 876-6400.

The public is invited to the event, which will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets cost $8.50 per person. Joseph B. Lanterman, chairman of the board of Amsted Industries, Inc., Prudential Plaza, Chicago, will be the featured speaker.

"It is not often that the community has an opportunity to hear a speaker with the background and experience of Mr. Lanterman," Edward F. Reiske, executive vice-president of the Chamber, commented.

Chairman Lanterman completed his education at Northwestern University and started at Amsted in 1936 as a trainee.

He advanced to the positions of controller, vice president, president, chairman and chief executive officer, and chairman of the board. Some of the companies on which he serves as a director besides Amsted are International Harvester, Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Peoples Gas Co., Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Co., Illinois Bell Telephone, University Patents, Inc., and the Kemper Corp.

In addition, he is active in civic, health, welfare, educational, business-industrial and political action groups.

His address here will be entitled "Our Heritage." American Steel Foundries is a division of Amsted Industries. M. B. Milonski, works manager of the ASP plant in Granite City, will introduce the speaker.

Chester L. Baker is Chamber president and E. A. Karandjef is chairman of the annual meeting committee. Dr. A. W. Tritan is to be master of ceremonies.

This year there will be plenty of room to accommodate the gathering. Last year, a number of reservations had to be turned down because of space, a spokesman noted.

Brief installation ceremonies will be held at the dinner for new Chamber officers and directors. C. A. "Jack" Dempsey was elected president of the Chamber at a regular monthly meeting of the board of directors Tuesday evening. Dempsey is co-owner of Dempsey-Adams Auto Body.

Physicists to meet, discuss magnetism

Thirty-two papers on solid state physics will be read at concurrent sessions when the 22nd annual Midwest Solid State Conference takes place Saturday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The conference will convene at 9 a.m. in the Science and Technology building.

Arthur Braundmeier of the SIUE physics faculty, coordinator of the conference, is expecting 150 solid state physicists to attend.

Solid state physics is the study of materials in the solid form, as opposed to gases or liquids. "Thirty per cent of all Ph.D. physicists are solid state physicists," he said, "studying the mechanical, electrical and thermal properties of solids."

Principal speaker will be Dr. Brian Schwartz of the Francis Bitter National Magnet

Laboratory at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He will discuss the applications of superconductivity.

Superconductivity is the ability of the electrons in some materials to exhibit perfect diamagnetism and, once set in motion to maintain that current-carrying state almost indefinitely.

for a total of nearly $1 million in flood disaster aid, while spending a total of $1.6 million for sewer break repairs between July 1, 1973, and the beginning of the current fiscal year on May 1 this year.

Because of protests from many municipalities over what they contended was an early cutoff of federal aid, the FDAA retained engineers to inspect flood damage with a view toward granting additional funds if the engineering survey justified such action. The $67,000 in additional funds was granted to Granite City on the basis of that survey.

In a separate instance, however, the FDAA retained Dr. James Kanipe, professional engineer of Limaugh Engineers, Inc., of Albuquerque, N.M., to check specifically into the Granite City sanitary sewer breaks and to give an opinion on the methods and costs involved in dewatering procedure.

A report by Dr. Kanipe maintained that the sewer dewatering by an East St. Louis contracting firm which made the Granite City sewer repairs were well within proper limits and that proper engineering practices had been followed.

Schuler said the appeal that the Civil Defense and FDAA reconsider the previously rejected grant was filed on the basis of Dr. Kanipe's report.

WE NEED ETHICS IN Government

Information generated by the state and federal environmental protection agencies is confusing and does not adequately speak out the far-reaching effects the proposal could have on the state's economy by actually controlling urban growth.

"The air quality plans may require no-growth restrictions in selected areas,"

Bedwell commented, "Revenue sharing gave us an opportunity to do some things in the township which would not have been possible without it."

He said the future of plans for additional township buildings is linked to the future of revenue sharing.

Bedwell reviewed the township's building program, including tentative plans for a new town hall and recreation center and a new park, all on the same site as the garage.

told those present, "Revenue sharing should be evaluated on the basis of whether or not it has strengthened our local governments. My evidence shows it certainly has, and that it is a popular program."

"This building is an example of using the funds for a permanent structure of great value to the community," Price continued.

He complimented the Chouteau Township officials for their wisdom in the use of the revenue sharing funds they had received and added, "This building is evidence of their intentions to use the funds for the good of their community."

The congressman said he has surveyed local and state officials concerning revenue sharing and has found most officials support its continuation. He said he supports renewal of the program, with minor changes, and said he will submit the findings of his survey to federal committees studying whether to recommend continuation of the program.

Edna Vadalabene also praised revenue sharing, saying, "This building is a sign that different levels of government can cooperate for the good of the citizens."

He noted the building is the first structure ever owned by Chouteau Township, and commented, "By building this fine new structure, you have given us some concrete evidence you are going to be here for quite some time."

Chouteau Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks told those present he felt the new building will save the township money in keeping the highway equipment from deteriorating rapidly.

Jail

constitutional rights were violated while he was in jail because his rights to privacy, health safeguards and access to a law library were violated. The case is scheduled for hearing Oct. 17.

The Department of Corrections suggested Madison County build a 48-hour holdover facility and that the St. Clair County jail at Belleville be used for long-term prisoners.

The suggestion angered County Board members, especially members of the Building Committee. Jack Frandsen, a member of the committee, said it appeared that the state and the sheriff of St. Clair County would like to have Madison County help pay for the new Belleville jail "which is much too large for St. Clair County to handle alone."

County Board Member Roger Elbe of Wood River who helped draft the referendum petitions, said the cost of a new jail could come out of regular funds "if county spending were controlled." Elbe favors the state recommendation for a holdover facility.

But Elbe, however, contends that it would cost the county an additional $200,000 per year in rental fees and transportation. Madison County prisoners were housed in the St. Clair County jail.

"This money could not be raised through a bond issue," he said. "The $200,000 would have to come out of the sheriff's department funds. The only way we could raise it would be to cut back on other services to the people."

Opponents of the plan contend that the $4 million in bonds would cost the county an additional $3 million in interest over a 20-year amortization period.

The jail would be built on land donated to the county by a group of Edwardsville businessmen who wanted to retain the jail in the city. The site is located along the Illinois Terminal spur west of Second Street.

Granite City, Charles Steptoe of Madison and Albert Schaefer of Venice.

Dr. Nieberg is dean of general studies and community service at BAC.

Schaefer, coordinator for Venice, reported that one class has been organized and is in operation—10 enrolled in the Beginning Sewing course. Venice also is the site of the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center.

Charles Steptoe, Madison coordinator, reported he has 12 classes under way with a total of 119 enrolled—General Educational Development, English, Social Studies and the Constitution, GED Mathematics and Science, Know Car, Home Air Conditioning and Refrigeration, Beginning Sewing, Beginning Art, Drawing and Painting, Beginning Typing, Beginning Shortland, Office Practice, Drafting, Beginning Cake Decorating and Auto Mechanics.

All are general studies, adult education courses, Steptoe said. Witterrongel, Granite City coordinator, reported that there are 280 enrolled in general studies, plus 361 enrolled in technical studies and also 13 college credit courses are offered with an enrollment of 156 in the Granite City extension classes.

Dr. Nieberg indicated that BAC is working closely to coordinate its services with the Granite City, Madison and Venice school districts.

The committee discussed the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). A federal grant was awarded to the area through the extension program to finance RSVP.

This is one of the visible ways that the college is attempting to improve the lives of senior citizens, it was noted.

Belleville Area College also assists in telephoning officials, arranging for nutrition programs and is considering two additional grant programs of the federal government to recognize the value that senior citizens can provide for their community.

The local Chamber of Commerce has made an application as a volunteer station; if that is approved, senior citizens may contact the Chamber for added information regarding the program.

BAC will seek to provide services for individuals who have reached the age of 60 or are fully retired and who wish to contribute to non-profit, non-sectarian organizations within their community. A full-time volunteer is designated as one who contributes four hours per week on a regular basis.

Mrs. Johnson's body was returned to Texas for burial.

Johnson was indicted by a grand jury May 16 on a murder charge. He posted $5,000 cash to cover a $50,000 bond and was released that week. He was arraigned May 29.

On Thursday, after his guilty plea to involuntary manslaughter was accepted, Chief Criminal Judge John Gitchett ordered his bond refunded, minus a 10 per cent "statutory fee" and $87 in court costs.

A check for $4,422 was given to Johnson's attorney, Don Groshong, who had a lien on it for legal costs.

Johnson then was released on a $50,000 recognizance bond which required no money.

Kirkpatrick, Walsh capture auto races

Larry Kirkpatrick, Wood River, and Pat Walsh, St. Louis, took top honors Saturday evening in a special racing program which marked the end of the 1974 season at Tri-City Speedway here.

Kirkpatrick defeated a star-studded field of super-sprint race drivers and Walsh captured the sportsman stock car class main event.

The Wood River driver, currently second in point standings behind Bill Ritz of Sedalia, Mo., posted the second fastest qualifying time of 23.21 seconds around the half-mile dirt oval. Nebraska's Roger Rager topped the others with a time of 23.10.

Kirkpatrick finished third in the handicap event pitting the fastest cars in time trials against each other. Cliff Cockrum of Benton won the event, with Tennessee's Chuck Amos second.

He finished second to Fred Jones in a heat race before leading the 35-lap feature race from start to finish with five-time winner, Buddy Jones finishing on his bumper.

No. 1 soccer Cougars win

Sam Donnelly and his University of Illinois Chicago Circle Chikas have become known as "spoilers" in American collegiate soccer competition but they left 4-1 to SUE at Chicago Saturday.

Last year, the Chikas played the national NCAA division I champion St. Louis University Bills to a standstill, 0-0. In 1971, Donnelly's Dandies handed the local Cougars what amounted to the same kind of treatment, a 1-1 deadlocked game to spoil an otherwise perfect Cougars season to that point.

Baker and North frosh take first

North's Mike Baker took first place with a time of 1:13.30, in a freshman cross-country meet at St. Paul in Highland over a 2.5-mile rolling course Saturday.

Grante City North runners finished first with 55 points and GC South was fourth with 148.

Highland came in second at 117, and Bellevue West third at 126 in a field of seven teams.

WARRIOR GRID FROSH SUFFER 35-22 LOSS

Fullback Bob Curtis scored three touchdowns for Granite City South's frosh football squad Thursday but host Bellevue East prevailed 35-22.

Curtis scored in the second, third and fourth quarters on handoffs from Quarterback Mike Forshee, and joined teammate Cliff Movan in providing two-point conversion runs.

Warrior Coach Lynn Lybarger said the team's ground game was effective but costly mistakes in fourth down situations were responsible for the loss. South now has a 1-2 record.

Crash hurts 4, cuts power

A one-car crash caused injury to four persons and knocked down a utility pole and power lines that cut off electric power to parts of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the western edge of Edwardsville for three to four hours early Sunday morning.

A car driven by William Sharp, 19, St. Louis, crashed into the utility pole when he was driving northbound on Highway 157 on Tanyard Hill, where he was driving northbound at 1:50 a.m. Saturday.

Two passengers in his car, Danny F. Sugar, Jr., Warren, Mo., and Karen Poling, 20, St. Louis, were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital here and then transferred to St. Louis hospitals. The driver and another passenger, Terry Coppenhaver, 19, of St. Louis, declined immediate treatment.

News notes

The first "millionaire" in the state lottery debut in Illinois this year is Mrs. Irene D. Halley of Franklin Park, wife of a Western Electric employee in West Chicago.

Selected Thursday evening for an award of $50,000 yearly for the next 20 years, she said, "I don't know what I'll do with the winnings. I'm dazed." She later added that she plans "to spend the money wisely."

Seven Illinois state troopers are asking the U.S. Supreme Court to void Gov. Daniel Walker's 1973 order that state employees disclose their financial resources. They say it violates their "right to be let alone."

September unemployment figures Friday showed the U.S. rate is 5.8 per cent, up from 5.4 per cent in August and now at the highest level in 2 1/2 years; 4.7 per cent in Illinois, compared to 4.4 per cent the previous month; and 7 per cent in the East St. Louis region, the same as in August.

Robert A. Swann, Edwardsville, was named director on Friday of a seven-county program to place low-income aged in training for part-time jobs. The Senior Community Service Aides Project is administered by the American Association of Retired Persons and National Retired Teachers, utilizing U.S. Labor Department funds.

At the fall meeting of the Illinois Association of School Administrators Friday in Springfield, an informal poll showed a 189-24 tally against the new state school board hiring Michael Hakala to continue as state superintendent when his elective term ends this fall.

The relatively new Port Chalmers insurance expected in the U.S. this winter is not as readily as originally indicated. But it is a Type A fire, which normally causes more deaths than does the Type B strain of last winter.

It was decided Friday that a three-judge federal court panel of Illinois judges will review the Illinois legislature's defeat of the Equal Rights Amendment. A provision of the State Constitution requiring a three-fifths vote for ratification is being challenged by two senators and four representatives.

Senate and House conferees have agreed on a compromise bill that would raise to $600 from $200 the federal insurance on savings accounts at U.S.-insured banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions.

GC winner starts Mexican holiday

Maria Castillo Scanlan of Granite City, the 1974-75 Embajadora (goodwill ambassador) of the Mexican Cultural Committee of Metropolitan St. Louis, accompanied by Mrs. Steve (Elva) Ortiz of Granite City, will depart Tuesday for Mexicana Airlines for Mexico City.

The all-expense paid holiday is among the rewards earned by Mrs. Scanlan upon her selection as "Embajadora" from a field of five candidates on Aug. 25 at Venice-Madison American Legion Hall.

A 24-mile stretch of Interstate 64 from north of Nashville to Mount Vernon was opened Friday, 1-64 is now open for 46 miles between New Baden and Mount Vernon.

Starting Jan. 1, the 23 million people covered by Medicare will pay 9 1/2 per cent more in hospitalization costs—the first $2 of expenses instead of the present $4. If the stay exceeds 60 months, the patient will pay $23 a day instead of $21.

A five per cent tax surcharge against about half of the American taxpayers may be among the anti-inflation plans proposed tomorrow by President Gerald Ford. Some wage and price guidelines also may be outlined.

The Bi-State Development Agency board by a 6-3 vote Friday rejected a "compromise plan" worked out by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council for development of port facilities in this region. Three negative votes by Illinoisans Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, Mrs. Blanche Helwig of Belleville and Mrs. Carmen Moody of East St. Louis, delayed proceeding with the plan, which calls for Bi-State coordination of port activities.

Only one lawyer has sought the vacant associate judge post of Harry R. Mondloch, who resigned. Ed Ferguson of Highland has applied. Deadline is Oct. 10.

U.S. Sen. Adlai Stevenson, speaking Friday to directors of the Illinois-Missouri Progressive Airport Creation Task Force, said a decision on a proposed new major airport at Columbia was seriously delayed by Watergate-related personnel changes in Washington.

A proposed $100-a-day Alton license for palm readers was rejected Thursday night as probably illegal.

Doctors seek cure for breast cancer

CHICAGO — "Nobody knows what the best treatment is for breast cancer," said tumor specialist Dr. Charles Perlia.

However, everybody knows the nightmare progress of the disease when it goes unchecked, its tendency to spread into the lymph node system and then to other organs, and then to the bones.

When a cancer still is localized in the breast a woman's chances of surviving at least five years is 85 per cent. If cancer cells have migrated beyond the breast her chances for another five years of life go down dramatically, according to American Cancer Society statistics.

So while researchers at Rush Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center here search for better understanding of breast cancer, for the causes and cures, they and their colleagues involved in treatment also look for better ways to diagnose and contain it.

Perlia and Dr. Steven G. Economou, professor of surgery at Rush Presbyterian-St. Luke's, believe removal of a breast harboring cancer presently is necessary.

There are factions in medicine who advocate treatment of breast cancer by other methods without total removal of the breast, at least in some cases.

"Anybody who says you should not have your breast removed should have evidence that there is better treatment," said Perlia.

"What is always omitted in, there is no way to know where it has spread," commented Economou.

Laboratory study of breasts removed because of malignancies have revealed 20 to 30 per cent had been invaded by cancer cells in areas that appeared to be unaffected by the known cancer when the breast was removed, according to Perlia.

In other words, even if the obvious cancer is removed, leaving the apparently unaffected areas of the breast, there still may be cancer cells, ready to multiply and to invade other parts of the body.

Even when surgery appears to be successful a physician can't be certain his patient is free of cancer. Diagnostic procedures are being developed to help him pinpoint areas where the cancer may have traveled and to assist him in determining what other treatment should be followed.

Economou as a surgeon now can ask the Presbyterian-St. Luke's laboratory to help him determine whether a breast cancer is sensitive to the female hormone, estrogen. Some cancers, given a supply of estrogen, will grow rapidly. Others aren't affected by the hormone.

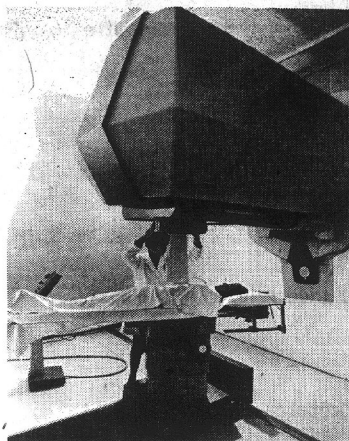

If the cancer cells are estrogen sensitive then the ovaries, the source of the estrogen, will be removed to inhibit their growth wherever they have lodged in the body. If they aren't then Economou and other physicians on the team will pursue other forms of treatment without subjecting the patient to the stress of surgery.

The laboratory procedure is an experimental one not yet in general use.

An exciting possibility is being explored in the medical center by physician-researcher Velayudhan Sahadevan, assistant professor of biomedical engineering, and Dr. Ernest Fordham, chairman and professor of nuclear medicine.

If successful, the procedure will enable physicians to track the spread of cancer to other areas of the body. Dr. Sahadevan explained that it involves preparing a protein substance extracted from breast cancer tissue. The substance then is tagged with a radioactive substance and inserted into the patient's body.

The substance is attracted to areas where cancer cells spread by the breast cancer have lodged and multiplied. A new model scanner in use in Presbyterian-St. Luke's nuclear medicine department is able to detect the radioactive substance imbedded in the malignancies.

The scanner, the first commercial model, is able to scan the body as if it were looking at sections of it. Growths or organs not easily seen, if at all, with other types of scanners are plainly visible with the new scanner, according to Dr. Fordham.

Again, the procedure is experimental and only being developed.

The scanner in the meantime is being used for full body scans that help to pinpoint small tumors not previously visible, or only vaguely seen as a slight darkness.

Economou reported the scanner has detected a tumor in a patient's abdominal region not previously suspected. Cancers in the neck had been discovered, but without the full body scan he would have had no way of knowing the cancer cells had traveled so far from the original location.

Given early enough warning he can remove the tumors in time to inhibit further spread of the cancer cells, Economou reported.

When the cancer spreads to the bones, as it often does in breast cancer cases, the result is painful and crippling. Dr. Mitchell Sheinkop, specialist in bone surgery at Presbyterian-St. Luke's, reported procedures have been devised to strengthen and rehabilitate the bones so a woman can return to living as an independent person.

The procedures won't lengthen her life, but it will extend the time in which she can function fully and not have to exist as a cripple.

Next: Race against time.

Harry and Tonto, Rolling Stones films are excellent

By GENTRY TROTTER
for KMOX-TV

Take your car plugs to the theater because you'll find it is quite small for the effective sound of a motion picture. I consider to be the ultimate performance and experience in rock music. "Ladies and Gentlemen, The Rolling Stones."

Mick Jagger delivers death-defying dance movements. The group shows brilliant versatility, as does the quality of the film.

Mick and his boys are majestic musicians... the word "explosive" is too soft for their performances.

The Stones capture many moods, and I guarantee that you will get involved. I rate the picture as excellent.

If we believe what we have read about the life styles in Russia all these many years, then Universal Pictures' "The Girl From Petrovka" is an unbelievable fairy tale.

Golde Hawn gives us a phony performance and Hal Holbrook has moth balls attached to his mind.

Even their arguments are a bit unrealistic.

The story of a Russian girl and an American reported falling in love during the Red by Allan Scott and Chris Bryant is just another evening of tears at your local theater.

This PG-rated flick isn't bad, but it isn't good either. It receives my rating of fair.

"Harry and Tonto"—20th Century Fox has a splendid winner.

Throughout the realistic screenplay, actor Art Carney gives an impressive, liberated, solid performance. Also, Ellen Burstyn and Geraldine Fitzgerald are a good supportive team.

If you think the story of a senior citizen with his cat is loaded with sympathetic overtones, well, it has its share of happiness as well.

A PG-rating should have been given the flick, but the inept Motion Picture Association gives the cute film an R-rating.

Sure, there are some expletive deleted, but that's reality. I promise at a later date to tell you what I think about the rating system.

Anyhow, go see "Harry and Tonto" because it receives an excellent.

I have seen some goofy films in my lifetime, but 20th Century Fox's "The Mad Adventures of Rabbi Jacob" takes first place.

This G-rated number has all of the slapstick gags one would ever see in one motion picture.

The story of a businessman and a New York rabbi in Europe has some cornball humor and outrageously funny situations. However, you will realize that the acting, direction and writing aren't so kosher.

When dealing with escapism and humor, this flick serves its purpose for the tiny tots. It receives my rating of good.

"No... Harrow House"... The diamond stunned cast with Candice Bergen, James Mason and John Gielgud has teasing suspense and is worth seeing by the entire family.

Gas Pump facilities pose problem

The new non-leaded gasoline for 1975 model autos has given the Granite City public school district a headache—how to dispense two types of gasoline from one tank and one pump.

The Board of Education considered the issue at its last meeting and voted to put the non-leaded gasoline, required for the new driver training cars, in the existing tank and pump at Granite City High School South, and to attempt a solution for how to provide gasoline for maintenance and other vehicles in the district which require leaded gasoline.

Tully A. Heubner, director of buildings and grounds for the school district, told the board he will try to determine the most economical way to provide an additional tank for regular gasoline. He suggested a 300-gallon overhead tank which could be installed at the district's maintenance building.

The board authorized Heubner to determine the cost of installing another tank. He also was asked to attempt to determine the most economical way to advertise for both types of gasoline.

Heubner said he did not feel he could get firm bids for the year from gasoline suppliers, due to the fluctuating prices of gasoline. He is to report to the board at its next meeting.

Gifts accepted by the board included $186 for carpeting the girls' physical education offices at GCHS South, donated by the Girls' Athletic Association, and landscaping around Johnson school, donated by Leo Schermer.

Permission was granted to Raymond T. Jones, administrative assistant-personnel, to attend the National Personnel Administration Conference in San Francisco, Calif., March 10 and 11, 1975, with his expenses paid.

Mrs. Ida Murray, the first elected vice president and the only surviving officer of Sacred Heart Altar Society's original officer corps, was the honored guest at a meeting at the church to commemorate the society's founding in September 1924.

Mrs. Murray has remained active in affairs of the church and the society's various programs. She also has completed more than 7,000 hours of volunteer service at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Marie J. Prehn, president, presented the guest of honor with a corsage to start the evening's program, and the Rev. James P. Hill, newly assigned pastor at Sacred Heart Church, gave the opening prayer.

A financial report was given by Kathy Foster and it was announced that Mrs. Jeanne Lucido is a hospital patient.

Mrs. Prehn said a general meeting of Church Women United will take place in January at Sacred Heart Church. A Christmas party on Dec. 12 will be held in the Officers' Club at the Granite City Army Installation, she reported. Mrs. Margie Greenwald will serve as chairman.

Highlights of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women convention held in Effingham were reviewed by Mrs. Irene Argelan and Mrs. Marie Perry. Both served as delegates.

The members approved publication of a 50th anniversary cookbook, with Mrs. Barbara Walker to serve as editor.

Mrs. Cecilia Loyet, sewing room director for many years, announced her retirement for health reasons. The Rev. Hill appointed Mrs. Helen Harshany in her place.

An election of officers was held with Mrs. Prehn, Mrs. Cecilia Cruse and Mrs. Kathy Foster, president, vice-president and treasurer, respectively, being re-elected.

Mrs. Mary Jane Bens was named secretary. The nominating committee consisted of Mrs. Rosemary Holtgrave, Mrs. Gladys Koishor and Mrs. Florence Todd.

The anniversary tea, which followed the meeting, was arranged by Mrs. Cruse, Mrs.

Mary Kristian, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Greenwald.

Gold baskets filled with yellow roses and ivy were placed on either side of a decorated cake encircled with garlands of fresh ivy. Tables were covered with gold cloths and yellow china was used with gold embossed anniversary napkins.

Serving were Mesdames Carol Whitsett, York, Alexander, Walker and Argelan. Maggie Williamson attended the guest book.

Charter members attending were Mrs. Anna Walker, Mrs. Loye, Mrs. Murray and past officers, Mesdames Gertrude Petty, Pat McKee, Georgia Miller, Gladys Koishor, Marie Perry, Irene Argelan, Rose Mary Holtgrave, Barbara Walker, Helen Harshany, Cecilia Oyset, and Marie Greenwald.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Koishor and Mrs. Bens. Among the special guests were the Rev. Daniel Flynn, the Rev. Gerald Griffin and Sister Mary Karla, principal of the school.

High school road contract let

C. D. Peters Construction Co. of Granite City was selected by the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night to construct a service road, speed bumps and parking lot at Granite City High School North.

The Peters' firm was low bidder on the project with a bid of $9,850. Excavation and Grading Co. was the only other bidder at $12,448.

The Board of Education also awarded a $5,172 contract to Westerheide Sheet Metal Co., low bidder on the installation of air conditioning for the vocal room at GCIS South. The vocal organization at the school has agreed to pay the cost of having air conditioning installed. Other bidders for the air conditioning work were Granite Sheet Metal Works, Inc., at $6,725; Triangle Heating Co. at $7,245 and Tri-City Heating and Air Conditioning Co. at $7,373. The board considered hundred dollar bids for industrial arts equipment and supplies and for material required for the Industrial Education Program. Industrial arts contracts totaling $16,745 were awarded to: Lincoln Electric, $1,004; Olive Industrial, $294; National Auto, $30; Brodhead Garrett, $1,234; Houser Automotive, $411; Lubellman Lucas, $534;

Sligo, Inc., $1,226; Harry's Paint Store, $1,151; Service Supply, $15; Budnick Tool Supply, $99; Sandpaper, Inc., $635; Mill Supply, $1,640; Bona Venture, $293; Langenecker Inc., $275; Acetylene Gas Co., $403; Service Blueprint, $1,031; Keuffel & Esser, $779; Graybar Electric, $164; Hobart Electric, $1,184; General Electric Supply, $1,199; Kelvin Electronics, $636; Baptist Electronics, $1,222; Van Sickle, $808; and Welder & Industrial, $396. It was indicated that most of the bids were not firm and could be increased if market prices changed. The board authorized

Victor Anderson, comptroller, to study price changes and approve the higher cost, when reasonable and necessary. Nine companies were chosen to supply $5,462 worth of industrial education supplies. Contracts were awarded to: T. A. Foley, $332; O'Neil Lumber Co., $683; Sligo, Inc., $2,081; Harry's Paint Store, $1,071; Brodhead Garrett, $91; Rubellman Lucas, $72; Sears, Roebuck & Co., $285; Mill Supply, $250; and Production Tool Co., $145. Butch's Coal and Material Co. was selected to supply coal for heating in the district at a price of $32.50 per ton. It was noted that the price is subject to changes as the cost to the supplier fluctuates. The bid opening marked the second time the board attempted to find a coal supplier. No bids were received the first time and the Butch's bid was the only one received in the second attempt. Authorization for an emergency repair to a smoke stack at McKinley School, damaged when struck by lightning, was granted to Worthen Brick Contracting Co. of Granite City for $2,148. Administration officials obtained prices by telephone. The only other firm which offered to do the work, Western Water-proofing, requested $2,200.

Board member L. Monroe Werthen abstained from voting on the contract to avoid any possible conflict of interest. Granite City Steel was chosen to supply $914 worth of galvanized and cold rolled steel sheets for maintenance and repair work. Another price from Hammond Sheet Metal Co. was higher than the price quoted by Granite City Steel. Bids for lawn mowers, trimmers and edgers were awarded at Atlas Lawn Equipment Co. for $599, and to Beckmann Turf & Irrigation Supply for $332, a total of $931. O'Neil Lumber Co. was selected to supply drywall and drywall materials for the Industrial Education program for $613. The O'Neil bid was lower on most items than a bid from L. J. Ross Construction Co. Prestige Printing Co., the only bidder on printing newspapers for the two high schools, was awarded a contract to print 1,200 newspapers per issue at $61 per issue for GCIS South, and to print 800 newspapers per issue for GCIS North at $50.60 per issue when four pages are printed and $80.60 per issue when eight-page editions are printed. Butler Floor Co., the only bidder on floor tile materials, was accepted as the supplier for the 1974-75 school year. Contracts were awarded to Stanley Photo Service for 100 red-to-red recording tapes for $222, and to Van Sickle Radio for 45 video tapes costing $787. Selected to furnish plumbing supplies were ITT Grinnell Corp. and Metro-East Industrial Supply, Inc., on low bids per unit for toilets and flush tanks. Baldwin Piano and Organ Co. was low bidder on tuning pianos for $10.75 per tuning. Three other bids were rejected. Bills ordered paid by the board totaled $105,348 from the educational fund, $964 from federal funds, $388 from the joint agreement fund, $6,139 from the transportation fund, and $22,856 from the building fund.

'Corporal' punishment in schools still accepted

By MARY LOU MANNING
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

Corporal punishment: punishment inflicted directly on the body, as spanking.

An old concept, but it's still being accepted in many Illinois public schools. However, there is now a formal exception to it. Recent revision of the state's supervision and recognition standards — minimum requirements each school district must meet in order to receive official recognition — contains a section which reads:

"Corporal punishment, as a punishment for misbehavior, may be employed by the district unless an individual parent or guardian submits a written request that corporal punishment may not be administered to his child or children."

This request becomes valid as long as it's in the student's record, according to a publication from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

In the past, most schools have honored a parent's request not to use corporal punishment, and in some districts, the practice has been prohibited.

The basis for the practice is found in the Illinois School Code, a collection of laws governing Illinois' schools. However, the section, added in 1965, never mentions the word "rod."

"Teachers and other certified educational employees shall maintain discipline in the schools. In all matters relating to the discipline in and conduct of the schools and the school children, they stand in the relation of parents and guardians to the pupils. This relationship shall extend to all activities connected with the school program and may be exercised at any time for the safety and supervision of the pupils in the absence of their parents or guardians."

According to an OSPI administrator, school officials, through legal interpretation, have construed this to mean that since parents spank children and teachers stand in the place of parents during the school day, then they can spank children.

In the OSPI's recent publication, "Students and Schools Rights and Responsibilities," the use of corporal punishment is explained: "Where corporal punishment is administered, it must be done in a reasonable manner and in a sincere attempt to maintain discipline."

The revised standards also state the school's responsibility in meeting the Critical Health Problems and Comprehensive Health Education Act, passed in 1971.

Required to be taken one semester during grades 7-9 as well as one semester during the high school years, the health education program should include these educational areas: human ecology and health, human growth and development, prevention and control of disease, public and environmental health and illness, personal health habits, alcohol, drug use and abuse, tobacco, nutrition, and dental health.

Baxter Cockrell cited for valor

The City Temple Royal Ranger Outpost 94 honored Baxter Cockrell, a member of the church and the Outpost organization, with a special medal for saving the life of a small girl who had fallen into a swollen river.

The incident occurred while the Cockrell family was on vacation in May at The Trail's End Ranch near the Caster River, 17 miles from Fredericktown, Mo. He received the Royal Rangers Medal of Valor, the highest medal presented in the Royal Ranger program. Cockrell, who now lives in Edwardsville, also received a certificate of recognition and letter from the Royal Ranger National Commander Johnnie Barnes.

Don Kurtz, senior commander of the local program was in charge of the ceremonies.

Physical exams by computer

SKOTTY'S
JEWELRY & CARD SHOP
1304 Niedringhaus
876-6414

A physical examination now can be made by a computer known as "Met Scan" in 15 minutes, with no waiting periods. The space-age machine was developed for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. by General Electric Co. The local office of Metropolitan, 3703 Nameoki Road, is one of nine offices in the United States with the new computerized physical examination equipment.

The machine checks height, weight, blood pressure, electrocardiogram (ECG), and measures waist height from middle of the back to the top of the head. The results come out on a tape in computer language. The tape is then put in a special mailing envelope and sent to the medical department of the insurance company where the results are translated.

"The privacy of the client is still observed because even our Met Scan operator cannot read the results. We feel this is a real service to our clients and saves them much time and inconvenience of going to a physician for an insurance examination. We are authorized to write as high as a $250,000 policy based on Met Scan physicals," Ray Grisham, district sales manager, said.

According to Grisham, the local Granite City office was one of the first nine company offices to get the equipment. He said that the selection as to where to place them was based on the difficulty encountered in getting a physician's appointment for an examination. According to the insurance executive, four Met Scans are located in the St. Louis area, due to a shortage of doctors and their heavy work loads.

The machine took five years of research and development by General Electric and then were used for two years in testing at the company's home office in New York City before being placed in field offices.

Mr. Spock—not Dr.—due here

Leonard Nimoy, who played Mr. Spock in the science fiction television series Star Trek, will visit Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Oct. 15.

Using material from Star

Trek and other works of science fiction, Nimoy will discuss the character of the Spock character on television and its viewers. His stage performance will be at 8 p.m. in the Meridian Ballroom.

Tickets will be available at the door. Students admission will be $1, non-students $1.50, and children under 12 will be admitted for 50 cents.

The University Center Board has planned other activities relating to science fiction around Nimoy's visit to SIUE.

There will be a spacecraft poster designing contest. Information on the contest can be obtained by contacting the University Center Board Office.

On Oct. 16, a science fiction panel discussion will be held in the Goshen Lounge, led by Roberta Bosse, assistant professor of English language and literature.

In connection with the science fiction theme, the films committee has scheduled a science fiction film festival beginning Oct. 20.

Some of the films to be shown are: "Metropolis," "The Lost World," "Mysterious Island," "The War of the Worlds," "Superman," "Forbidden Planet" and "Twenty Million Miles to Earth."

Folklore archive sought at SIUE

Establishment of a Southern Illinois Folklore Archive at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be considered when the SIUE Board of Trustees holds its October meeting at SIUE Thursday.

Other SIUE items before the board include action on a bachelor of science degree in social work and a specialty certificate in oral pathology.

SIUE will present proposed policies for naming physical components of the University and on commercial advertising by university-affiliated media. Also a board matter will be a proposal for a moderate extension of the associate in applied science degree given by the School of Technical Careers.

Capital grant for SIUE purchases

The Illinois Board of Higher Education has approved $63,510 in non-instructional capital improvements for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The improvements include $13,000 for purchase of a bus to provide shuttle service to various campus locations, $14,610 for purchase of equipment for nuclear physics and chemistry experiments, $10,400 for parking lot improvements and $25,500 for purchase of special police cars and automobiles for the University fleet.

Funds for the project have already been appropriated. Some equipment purchases will be financed with non-state money.

Show to feature 'Women in prints'

"Women in Prints" is the title of a show that will open today in the Opaki Room of the University Center at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. A public reception will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The show, which will run through Nov. 1, features prints of painter Helen Frankenthaler and sculptresses Marisol Escobar and Louise Nevelson, all internationally known artists, according to a spokesman for the art and design department at SIUE.

Scout camp fees raised $7 a week

Summer camp fees for Boy Scout Camp Sunnen, located near Potosi, Mo., have been increased from $26 to $33 per week for scouts who will attend camp next summer. It was announced today by Reginald Mennerick, council camping chairman for the Cahokia Mound Council.

It is the first raise in camp fees since the summer of 1968. "It always has been the philosophy of the Boy Scouts of America and the Cahokia Mound Council that the cost of a boy attending camp be kept as low as possible. In our Council we have held to the principle that the Scout's fee be one-half of the actual cost of having the scout in camp. The other half of the cost has come from council operating funds, and this is still our policy," Mennerick said.

"The camping committee feels that our leaders and parents of our scouts will understand that the costs connected with camp have risen to the point now that we simply had to raise the camp fees. We all know that every day when we pick up the newspaper, turn on our radio or watch television we hear of the rising cost of everything," he added.

The cost for a scout attending the special junior leaders' training course has been increased from $16 to $20 per week. Camp Sunnen began operation during the summer of 1963 and since that time has received numerous national recognitions for the quality of program offered the scouts attending.

How not to conserve energy

Security lighting around your premises can save more energy — and money — than it uses.

By far the largest number of crimes against people and property are committed after dark. Serious accidents, too, happen most often in the hours of darkness. A security Nite Lite on your premises can be a powerful deterrent to burglars or vandals, who prefer to work in darkness. And its wide area of illumination can prevent falls or collisions that are most likely to happen after dark. Security Nite Lite is automatic protection for both property and people all night, every night. Ask our office for details of the Nite Lite rental plan.

Dixon, Page state treasurer rivals

ALAN J. DIXON

Alan J. Dixon, 46, Belleville, state treasurer of Illinois for the past four years, is seeking a second term this year. He is the Democratic nominee for the Nov. 5 general election.

An attorney, businessman, banker and leader of his party on the floor of the State Senate, he initially won elective office at age 21.

In 1950, at age 23, Dixon was elected to the State House of Representatives and was the youngest member of the Illinois legislature. He won the Independent Voters of Illinois' "outstanding legislator award" on three occasions.

He has over a quarter-century of public service and has won every elective office that he has sought.

Dixon was re-elected to the House for five consecutive terms (1952-1960) and served on every major committee. He was chairman of the House Judiciary Committee in 1959 and 1961.

It was during this period that he became familiar with state fiscal and revenue programs. In 1962, he was elected to his first term in the Illinois Senate, and was re-elected in 1966. After only two years in the upper house, he was named Senate minority whip. A newspaper referred to him as "one of the outstanding orators of the Democratic party."

His name became identified with much legislation—such as the new criminal code, minimum wage bills, judicial election reform, and consumer fraud.

Dixon won praise from such diverse groups as the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois, Illinois Farm Bureau, Illinois AFL-CIO and Illinois Retail Merchants Association.

His attendance record in both the House and Senate was one few legislators matched. From 1950 to 1970, he voted on every major bill affecting the office of state treasurer.

As chairman of the Judicial Advisory Council since 1961, he achieved comprehensive knowledge of criminal jurisprudence and the Illinois judicial system.

Dixon also was a member of the Constitutional Study Commission, which recommended the calling of the constitutional convention that led to public approval of the 1970 State Constitution.

A graduate of the University of Illinois and Washington University Law School in St. Louis, he was the senior partner in the law firm of Dixon & McDonnell of Belleville before becoming state treasurer.

He formerly was a partner of former Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon in a chain of independent weekly newspapers throughout the state.

Dixon has been a member of the Illinois State Bar Association, St. Clair County Bar Association and American Trial Lawyers Association. He is past president of the Harry Page, Springfield, Republican nominee for the office of state treasurer, is the only Downstate Republican candidate for state office.

He feels that his candidacy helps present a strong and well-balanced ticket in the Republican party's effort to unseat the Cook County-Downstate ticket of the Democrats.

Page, born and raised in Sangamon County, says that "with the superintendent of public instruction and the clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court soon to become appointed offices, there is only one Downstate state official living south of the Cook County line."

Page continues, "As I traveled the state this past year, I heard it expressed over and over again that the Chicago area and Downstate should both be represented."

The brother of former State Instruction Supt. Ray Page, he emphasizes that his "background in administration and formal education eminently qualifies me for this position of public trust."

Harry Page, 44, a Springfield high school administrator, has held posts at local and state levels in education since 1957. Formerly assistant state superintendent in charge of school-community relations, he currently is on leave as vice-principal of Southeast High School.

He comments, "I'm not a fiscal expert, but I'm an administrator and I think the office of state treasurer is an administrative office."

South High homecoming to begin with play, crowning

It will be one of the biggest weeks of the 1974-75 year this week at Granite City High School. Homecoming, a variety of "homecoming"-related events will take place.

"Family Portrait," the 1974 homecoming play, is set for 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in the South High Auditorium. Admission to the play will be $1, and no seats will be reserved.

Crowning of the homecoming queen will take place after the performance of the play each evening.

The new queen will be crowned by Miss Melanie Anadorian, the May queen of 1974.

Girls in the homecoming court are Shelly Boyd, Cindy Cagle, Rhonda Cinko, Kathy Cross, Elaine Dowdy, Terri Moran, Sandy Parks, Laura Robertson, Beth Squires and Paula Williams.

Boys participating in the court are Craig Bailey, Kirk Chapman, Steve Dioneda, Don Dotzauer, Woody Halbrook, Paul Mushill, Tom Schooley, Bob Shipley, Greg Terrell and Mark Winder.

The homecoming parade is set for 2:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11. This year's homecoming football game will take place at 8 p.m. Friday, with the Warrior gridders hosting the Collinsville Kahoks.

A homecoming dance is planned for the GCIS South cafeteria immediately after the varsity football game, a Southwestern Conference contest.

The play to be presented Wednesday and Thursday nights has been prepared under the supervision of Richard King, South High speech director. Scenery has been designed by Mrs. Beverly Scroggins and her stagecraft class.

Three roles in the play will be performed by different students on the two nights. Wednesday's cast includes Rhonda Cinko as Hepzibah, Linda Morgan as Anna and Vicki Kirchoff as "woman of Jerusalem."

On Thursday, the roles in the same order will be portrayed by Aletia Kovach, Diane Parsagian and Lori Winters.

Other members of the cast are as follows: Mary, Annette Tarpoff; Daniel, Scott Brokaw; Joseph, Frank Chapman; Naomi, Janet Moss.

Judah, Kevin Korns; Mary Cleophas, Winni Freedman; Reba, Beth Squires; Simon, Alan Schuler.

James, Bill Mullins; Mordecai, Steve Lathrop; Selma, Lorna Reinhardt; Eben, Larry Burns; Matthias, Mike Siebert.

Disciple, Leon Scroggins; Appius Hardin, Bob Miller; Rabbi Samuel, Don Dotzauer; Mendel, Nancy Milton; Mary of Magdala, Shelly Boyd.

Nathan, Brian Beljanski; Esther, Laura Robertson; Leban, Dennis Astorian; Joshua, Craig Bailey; and Beulah, Becky Varian.

"Family Portrait" was first produced at the Morosco Theatre in New York City, with Judith Anderson in the leading role.

Taking for its theme the Master's own words, "A prophet is not without honor, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house," Family Portrait elaborates in the terms of an ordinary family which acts and speaks as people do.

It is called beautiful and dignified. It is relevant in its approach to those whose personal lives were affected by war with that of the founder of Christianity.

A spokesman said the play is a "Single, eloquent, reverent picture of the family of Jesus." In its entirety, the story encompasses the last three years of Christ's life.

"It begins in Nazareth, which Jesus had just left upon His life and where His remaining brothers understand only that in the height of the building season He has left them and depleted the working force."

"It continues in Capernaum, where tavern-keepers and promoters have capitalized on His growing power and popularity. It returns to Nazareth and the disillusioning experience among His neighbors."

"Then, swiftly, it journeys to Jerusalem, where the fickle crowd has turned from its cries of 'Hosannah' to shouts of hatred, and to the upper chamber where, after the Last Supper, Mary awaits His return from Gethsemane."

The final scene is laid again in Nazareth, several years after the crucifixion, where His family still labors under the selfish and blind delusion that they have been disgraced—except Mary, who knows that some of His followers are continuing His work."

Dr. John Haynes Holmes has commented, "This is the most remarkable play on the boards at the present time. It is beautiful, exquisite, tremendously moving. I feel that it ought to be perpetuated, like the Oberammergau Passion Play, and be given a run every season."

George M. Burditt, 51, LaGrange is the Nov. 5 Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate.

A lawyer, Burditt is a partner in the firm of Burditt and Calkins, Chicago.

He is a specialist in food, drug and cosmetic law and is chairman of the American Bar Association committee in that field.

He is a former state representative. Burditt and his wife, the former Barbara Stenger, have four children.

His legislative experience consists of four Illinois House terms in which he helped secure strong anti-crime and environmental protection bills. He also fought for passage of current Illinois state ethics laws.

He voted for Adlai E. Stevenson II for President in 1952 but is critical of Sen. Stevenson III, son of the former governor, for advocating a "poorly thought out" gasoline rationing plan for Illinois that neglected the needs of farmers and those who travel for a living.

He assails Sen. Stevenson as an "absentee landlord" who pays attention to national and world issues but ignores Illinois problems.

A graduate of Harvard University, Stevenson's alma mater, Burditt was class president and basketball captain there. He graduated from Harvard Law School.

He retired voluntarily from the General Assembly two years ago.

Burditt comments, "If I've got a Watergate albatross around my neck, then Adlai has an albatross of Cook County corruption around his neck."

The GOP aspirant emphasizes his belief that most governmental corrupt practices in this state have been committed by Democratic officeholders.

He has served with many other governmental and civic organizations and in 1965 received the "best legislator" award of the Independent Voters of Illinois.

Stevenson's father served as governor of Illinois from 1949 to 1952, was the Democratic candidate for President in 1952 and 1956, and was U. S. ambassador to the United Nations from 1961 until his death in July 1965.

His grandfather served as secretary of state of Illinois from 1914 to 1917, and his great-grandfather was vice-president of the United States under President Grover Cleveland from 1893 to 1897.

Stevenson and his wife have four children. His voting residence is in Chicago.

He regards as the chief 1974 campaign issues the condition of the economy, unemployment, the energy shortage, other chronic shortages, and escalating inflation.

He also cites as issues the nation's foreign policy, political reform, Congressional reorganization and improved governmental budgeting.

He concludes, "What this country needs more than anything else right now is vision. My record shows I have perceived and acted upon the problems."

Sen. Stevenson, Burditt—Nov. 5 Senate aspirants

GEORGE M. BURDITT

ADLAI STEVENSON III

George M. Burditt, 51, LaGrange is the Nov. 5 Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate.

A lawyer, Burditt is a partner in the firm of Burditt and Calkins, Chicago.

He is a specialist in food, drug and cosmetic law and is chairman of the American Bar Association committee in that field.

He is a former state representative. Burditt and his wife, the former Barbara Stenger, have four children.

His legislative experience consists of four Illinois House terms in which he helped secure strong anti-crime and environmental protection bills. He also fought for passage of current Illinois state ethics laws.

He voted for Adlai E. Stevenson II for President in 1952 but is critical of Sen. Stevenson III, son of the former governor, for advocating a "poorly thought out" gasoline rationing plan for Illinois that neglected the needs of farmers and those who travel for a living.

He assails Sen. Stevenson as an "absentee landlord" who pays attention to national and world issues but ignores Illinois problems.

A graduate of Harvard University, Stevenson's alma mater, Burditt was class president and basketball captain there. He graduated from Harvard Law School.

He retired voluntarily from the General Assembly two years ago.

Burditt comments, "If I've got a Watergate albatross around my neck, then Adlai has an albatross of Cook County corruption around his neck."

Car check leads to fistfights and chases

Two brothers were charged with resisting arrest and aggravated battery after a police check of their car.

The police next ran after the alleged series of fistfights and chases which started at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Kirkpatrick Homes.

Charged are Randall Clubb, 25, and Phillip Clubb, 20, both of Mascoutah. Randall Clubb also is charged with driving while intoxicated and reckless driving. Both were injured in the altercations.

Patrolman John Apperson was on patrol in a squad car when he reported seeing a van traveling at high speed through Kirkpatrick Homes. He chased the vehicle to the 3400 block of Kirkpatrick, where the van slid 10 feet a step. Two men got out and allegedly began pulling full cans of beer out of the vehicle.

The officer approached the alleged driver and asked him for his license; the man told him he had not been driving the van. Apperson told him he was under arrest and alleged that he became abusive and wanted the policeman to fight him. The two men from the van then spoke briefly and the driver began to run, it was related.

When the officer began to run after the man, the other man stepped in the policeman's way and refused to let him pass; Apperson then placed him under arrest and locked him in the back of the van.

While being booked, the men allegedly started fighting with Apperson and each other. During the scuffle, Patrolman David Rosenberg's shirt was ruined, it was alleged.

The men were jailed and later were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Randall Clubb was admitted with a hematoma to his left eye and nose and bleeding from his nose. Phillip Clubb was treated for an injury near his eye and was returned to police custody.

Disclosure law loophole can be fought by voters, candidates, legislators

Praise is turning to chagrin; the new Illinois campaign disclosure law has been rendered ineffective. The Illinois Board of Elections in an incredible decision negated the intent of the new law by sharply narrowing the way it is applied.

The board decided that contributions to ward, township and county political organizations which support candidates need not be disclosed. Since the whole point of the legislation involves disclosure of campaign gifts, the people's will—as expressed through General Assembly action—is being thwarted.

The "laundering" of money, so discredited with Watergate-era misdeeds by Republicans, has been revived by Democrats on the Illinois board.

By routing funds through committees that help more than a single candidate, the Elections Board majority says, it will be possible for both the committees and the aided candidates to hide what they are doing.

Senate President William C. Harris, a Republican, sees this development as a "stevesy." Governor Daniel Walker, a Democrat, calls the ruling a "loophole big enough to drive a truck through." Candidates who agree with the reactions can show their sincerity by voluntarily disclosing their campaign fund data during the period in which the state board's questionable decision is being tested in the courts.

Illinois voters and legislators can and should act to end the loophole. At a time when public confidence in governmental processes needs all the bolstering it can get, the state board majority's negative tangent is intolerable.

A. O. Smith Corp. an important member of Quad-Cities' industrial family

Anniversary salutes are due the A. O. Smith Corporation on the occasion of the company's 100th year and the Granite City auto frame plant's 20-year milestone.

Ups and downs are not unusual in corporate history or in the experiences of a manufacturing plant, but the happy fact is that A. O.

Smith, its Automotive Division and the Granite City facility are "solid citizens" and effective producers of high-quality goods.

Quad-Cityans are proud to play a significant role in the distinguished past, present and future of this century-old, highly modern industrial firm.

Administrative assistant is likely to enhance Venice's city government

The Venice municipal government has adopted a bold and innovative approach to the financial problems that plague nearly all cities by employing Thomas Fields of Venice as administrative assistant to Mayor William M. Ebersoldt.

In addition to keeping track of federal and state fund programs applicable to the Venice area, the new administrator will be able to aid in assuring adequate and efficient city services.

Sad that Illinois is among states which have the cruel dog fight 'sport'

This part of the state was not involved, but it is sad to note that Illinois qualified for the spotlight as a Congressional subcommittee began studying the need for a federal ban on shipping dogs across state lines for the "sport" of fighting.

year. Missouri, Tennessee, Wisconsin and Florida also are believed to be frequent locations.

"Unbelievable brutality" was a phrase voiced by Carey. Another witness, Sen. Harrison A. Williams of New Jersey, sponsor of similar legislation in the Senate, called it "gruesome" and "loathsome."

These words are accurate but are almost understatement in view of the descriptions given last week on cruel maiming and killing of dogs and other animals for audiences' enjoyment and entertainment."

Sierra Club 'rides the rails'

Chicago Tribune — Strange bedfellows are romping in the green glades and clean waters of environmental protection. Railroads are at least partially financing the Sierra Club's attack on Mississippi River pollution.

One normally thinks of environmentalists as bird watchers, mountain climbers, beachcombers and other nature lovers.

They're the good guys, banded together in the Sierra Club, Izak Walton League and other organizations to fight land developers, water polluters and other bad guys.

The Sierra Club and Izak Walton League, however, are bedfellows with 21 of the nation's biggest railroads in a fight that has more to do with money than with nature.

The club, the league and the railroads filed lawsuits to stop the government from enlarging and modernizing the Alton No. 3 navigation locks and dam, one of many that span the Mississippi like stepping stones from St. Louis to St. Paul.

The lawsuits charge, among other things, that the construction would violate the National Environmental Policy Act.

As the environmentalists charge, the construction inevitably would add to pollution of the muddy Mississippi.

But why are the railroads, themselves polluters from way back, interested in cleaning up the Mississippi? They're not.

They're interested in sinking the river barges and boats, advocates that compete with the railroads in hauling millions of tons of oil, wheat, coal and other products.

ABOUT THIS QUESTION:
"In the past I have insured my guns and sports equipment against loss, damage or theft. I have purchased liability insurance in case I injured someone or damaged property. I bought a Trip-Accident Policy to cover personal injury to myself. Is it true that your agency now provides all these coverages in one Sportsmans Policy?"

Roland-Nelson engagement told

The betrothal and approaching marriage of Miss Karen D. Nelson and Charles Roland are being announced by the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Vina Nelson, Greenboro Mobile Homes Park, Rural Route 6, Edwardsville.

Plans are being completed for the wedding on Oct. 25 at the Church of God, Orville Avenue and Vine Boulevard.

Miss Nelson, a graduate of Granite City High School, is employed in the auditing office at Famous Barr Co., St. Louis. She also is a daughter of the late Elmer L. Nelson.

Her fiancé resides in Alexandria, Va., and is a federal government employee at the Pentagon in Washington, D. C.

The groom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony N. Roland of Poplar Bluff, Mo. He is a graduate of Cleveland High School, St. Louis, and served four years in the U. S. Air Force.

PICKUP, CAMPER TAKEN
The 1965 white over blue pickup truck and camper of Harold Perryman, 2645 E. 24th St., were stolen from the K-Mart parking lot on Nameoki Road. It was reported at 8:50 p.m. Thursday. The camper is white with a brown stripe, officials were told.

Honor Circle hears Mrs. Fox

Mrs. Beulah Fox based a devotional topic on excerpts from "Streams in the Desert" by Charles Cowan at a meeting last week of Honor Circle at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Fox also read verses from Hebrews 11:16 and Luke 17:5, entitled to faith and a poem, "How High the Flame," taken from the Sunshine Friendship magazine.

She closed with a prayer written by President Ford's eldest son when his father was appointed vice-president.

Members met in the morning for a quilting session and were served a noon dessert luncheon by Mrs. Winifred Reimers.

Mrs. Clara Wadlow, circle chairman, conducted the afternoon meeting attended by those named and Mesdames Mildred Cundiff, Eva Evans, Augusta Pender, Pearl Campbell, members; and a guest, Mrs. Edith Etherton.

Tax records? Hold onto them

You filed your 1973 federal income tax return a long time ago, so that's out of the way for another year.

But wait a minute. Where are your tax records?

Just as certain documents were essential for you to fill out your return, you will need them to be necessary for you at some time in the future.

Obviously, if this year's tax return is selected by the Internal Revenue Service for an audit, you will need those records to show how you determined what you thought to be the correct tax.

Even if your return is accepted as filed, for your peace of mind and yours, it is a good practice to keep all tax records as long as they remain useful to you, the Internal Revenue Service contends.

The law specifies only that you must maintain records required to establish the correct amount of income, credits, deductions and other matters to be reported on returns. This means that you should keep all information that will substantiate the items claimed on your tax return.

There is no requirement as to the particular kinds of records for tax purposes, other than that they must be permanent, accurate and complete.

However, it might pay to look over your tax accounting methods, for no one should remain under the illusion that bits and pieces of paper thrown into a discarded shoe box can be considered proper records at tax time, the IRS warns.

Records are required by law -- adequate records -- but good records should be required by the taxpayer, since frequently the difference between some documentation and good record-keeping is income tax savings. It is asserted.

The IRS recommends that all taxpayers carefully consider keeping track of such records as medical-care insurance premiums; cost of medicine and drugs; medical and dental expenses; state, local, and property taxes.

Also, charitable contributions; interest and finance charges; disabled dependent and child care; political contributions; business and investment expenses; such as business expenses, such as investment advice and publications; and reimbursements for casualty losses or theft.

How long should you keep tax records? It varies, depending on the information documented. For example, tax records must be retained as long as their contents may be material in the administration of any internal revenue law.

Receipts, canceled checks and other records supporting a deduction, credit, expense or item of income must be kept at least three years from the date of the return or the date the tax was paid, whichever is later.

Record-keeping is important because these three years because, under the law, the IRS can audit individual income tax returns three years back when errors are suspected.

There are other tax records that should be kept longer than three years. Records of how much you paid for your home and its major improvements, for example, the taxpayer is entitled to establish your cost basis when you sell.

You should retain indefinitely records of costs of any stocks, bonds, or other investments so you can similarly compute gains or losses when you sell.

And records should be kept on any property received by gift or inheritance so that you may determine tax due if you decide to sell some day.

Also, retain copies of your previously filed tax returns as a part of your records. They are useful in preparing future tax returns as well as in such computations as filing a claim for refund or income overpayment, the Service explains.

Next, so you're being audited.
